CONGRATULATIONS TO FATHER JEFFREY DOWNIE! After many years of preparation and striving to answer God's call, Jeffrey is now a Priest! Here in our own community of Welwyn Garden City, we have had the privilege of journeying with him through his final months of formation; others, obviously, have had their part to play. He has visited the sick and housebound; he has gone to our schools. The ecumenical and interfaith groups have been blessed with his presence. We have heard Fr. Jeffrey preaching and have got used to him assisting at Mass. There are babies he has baptised and Funerals he has conducted. Fr. Jeffrey's musical skills in playing the organ and singing have enriched the Liturgy. I am afraid that I let him down by not arranging a 'Stag Night' ! However, this weekend we have (had) the joy of his Ordination to the Priesthood and his First Mass. The honeymoon is top secret...! Our thanks to the Diocese for sending us Jeffrey and to Jeffrey for all he has contributed to the life of our parishes in Welwyn Garden City and the wider community. Now he will move on to Our Lady of Mount Carmel and St. George in Enfield. We wish him much happiness and peace as the Lord's Priest. Ad multos annos!

Today we celebrate the Solemnity of the Apostles, St. Peter and St. Paul. They were called and chosen for special ministry in the Church. They took the Gospel to many places, preaching Christ Crucified and proclaiming the power of the Resurrection. They learned from their mistakes and at times faced opposition from others in the Church. They never stopped responding to the Vocation Jesus had summoned them to carry out. Finally, they gave their lives as Martyrs in Rome and are definitely two great pillars of the Church. We ourselves carry on the great task of the spread of the Gospel and the building up of God's Kingdom.

Our Vocations may vary but our conviction and response complement one another and enrich everyone! Thank you, once again, for all your prayer and hard work in getting ready for, and celebrating, this weekend's events.

May God bless Fr. Jeffrey and may God's choicest blessings come down also on each one of you. Fr. Norbert
