31st Sunday of the Year 30th October 2022

Have you ever climbed a tree? If so, was it a sycamore tree? In our Gospel passage today, St. Luke presents us with the hilarious scene of Zacchaeus, a wealthy tax collector, who is desperate to catch a glimpse of Jesus. His lack of height necessitates him climbing up a tree and it happens to be a sycamore. All these details were remembered and eventually set in writing by the evangelist.

I was wondering what the people around him must have thought was going on! Did he have to shed some of his clothing to make it easier? Were his sandals cast off? A heavy purse or money bag - was this left behind on the ground? What about his dignity as he balanced perhaps precociously on a branch? The result, however, is one of pure grace as the little man receives Jesus into his home and makes recompense for the way he has cheated others, opening his heart to the poor. What a wonderful experience of salvation and the chance to make a new start! The letting go of so much to have a glimpse of the Lord leads to riches beyond measure and a taste of heaven.

As we reflect on our own lives, are there things we should give up which would enable us to come closer to Jesus Christ? Would this be easy or would it cost a great deal? Who are the people we have hurt and in reaching out to them are we ready to express our contrition for sin? In opening our hearts, who are those less fortunate than ourselves who would gain from our generosity of spirit? Zacchaeus was totally focussed on seeing Jesus and no-one could stop him. If we keep our eyes on the Lord, what do we hope to catch sight of and how will that affect us? We can make a new beginning every day. How about starting TODAY?!

This Sunday's passage is from Chapter 19 of St. Luke; by next Sunday we will be taken well into Chapter 20 with Jesus having entered Jerusalem. This means that today's encounter is the final one we witness on the long road which has taken the Lord to his destiny which will unfold in Jerusalem. I invite you to think back over these months of walking with the Lord: What have you learnt? What challenges have you faced? How has the world and our country changed? Allow the Lord to be your companion in the coming weeks and months!

God bless you. With love and prayers, Fr. Norbert

PAULINE QUANTRILL R.I.P. The Funeral Mass will take place on Thursday 10th November at 2pm.

GIVING TREE Once again we have decided to provide supermarket vouchers for local families in need at Christmas time, in lieu of the Giving Tree Mass we used to hold at Holy Family church. We feel this is the best option to help families at these times of economic difficulties, as the vouchers can be used to buy food, toys or clothes - depending on what is most needed. This year we will be supporting at least 30 local families and refugees from Ukraine living in the area. So if you feel you can help, please put your donation in a sealed envelope labelled 'Giving Tree' and put it through the door of the Presbytery at either Holy Family or Our Lady's by 20th November.
